POSTOFFICE SET BACK BY TREASURY OUTFIT

Departmental Leaguers Are Defeated by Money Clerks in Section C by 5 to 1 Count.

BEARD'S PLAYING A FEATURE

SECTION C. Postoffice went down to defeat by

Treasury in the Section C game of the post-season series yesterday, 5 to 1. being helpiess before the delivery of "Lefty" Downey, the latter yielding only three clean drives and sending back eight on strikes, an error preventing his administering a coat of whitewash.

Treasury got busy in the very first inning and sent over enough to put the same away. Barnhart mussed up Sig-ourney's grounder, the latter going to second when Armstrong went out, sec-ond to first. Strait got a scratch hit and "Sig" tallied when Vaughn threw badly to Dodge after Strait had stolen; passes to Downey and McLarren filled the bases and one was forced in when Flannery also walked. Robinson hit to Ryan and Downey scored when Kraft dropped the With one down in the fifth. Strait singled to left and Downey pounded out a long double against the center field fence. Strait tallied and Downey moved up on a wild pitch. McLarren hit to Ryan and Downey was run down, but stalled long enough to allow McLarren to reach third on the play. The latter scored when Flanney got a scratch hit that dribbled along the first base line. The Marmen made their only tally in the seventh when Dodge bounced one over Robinson's head, and Kerr beat out an infield one. Lyons attempted a sacrifice and fiviled out. Dodge saw third un-guarded on the play and stole that bag, scoring when Robinson muffed Downey's attempt to catch Kerr off first.

Charley Beard played a brilliant game at first, his pick-ups saving his team-mates on at least three occasions. Bell ed both teams at bat with a clean single to left and a slashing double to the cen-

NOTES OF YESTERDAY'S GAME.

Manager Mack has completely recovered from his recent indisposition, and di-rected affairs from the bench.

It may be good baseball to walk Baker purposely to take a chance on McInnes, but the Athletics don't care if opposing teams always follow that policy, for "Stuffy" McInnes is simost certain to make the pitcher regret ever picking him

It may be different tomorrow afternoon when Walter Johnson will be in for Washington.

Another Pittsburgh National League player was released on July 23, when Manager Fred Clarke announced the transfer of Oliver McArthur, pitcher, to Richmond, of the Virgina League.

Nap Rucker last week again visited Bonesetter Ress. at Youngstown, only to find him absent on a vacation. Rucker has a misplaced cartilage in his shoulder. It was helped by treatment from Reese last year, and Nap is confident that the Youngstown doctor will help him Umpire Al Orth, who tore a ligament in his leg by a fall in Philadelphia, on June 3, when he slipped on the concrete at the front of the players' dugout, will be unable to work for several more weeks. Orth is on crutches now, having left his bed in the Episcopal Hospital, Philadelphia, last week.
